

Attention FDA

0189 00 MAY -4 10:38

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

I know what I need and why should I have to pay for any extra exams.

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

I have found Mail order ~~exams~~ ^{hears} very Good and you can try them and if not Pleased receive Money back.

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

Positively Not.

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

Positively if I have the ability to send an order and able to try out. I dont need help from F.D.A. or any one else.
